Another hotel room, it looked the same as a thousand other rooms on a thousand other nights. Taylor flops onto the bed, eyes closed against the harsh fluorescent light, body aching from yet another show.

Lost in thought he doesn't hear the door open but catches the familiar scent of cigarette smoke and whisky, it floats on the air as he feels the touch of soft flannel brush against his skin.

"You ok babe?" Dave's voice whispers in his ear as he lays next to him.

Taylor smiles as strong arms envelop him. "I'm always ok when I'm with you."
